

Health and Safety Policy

LONDON HOSE HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

London Hose is a responsible employer and is committed to ensuring all reasonably practical measures are taken to maintain the Health & Safety of our employees, visitors and contractors, whilst working for, or visiting us.

It is our duty to ensure Health & Safety forms a key part of our operations, also, to promote, maintain and develop a positive Health & Safety culture within our business.

It is also the duty of all employees, visitors and contractors to embrace the importance of Health & Safety as a culture and engage with our Health & Safety Policy by

- ✓ Taking reasonable care for their own Health & Safety, and that of others affected by their actions
- ✓ Following the Health & Safety procedures adopted by our business and of the contractors working for us
- ✓ Using the personal protective equipment provided, as required by the said procedures
- ✓ Taking care of equipment and personal protective equipment provided and used, reporting any faults or incidents immediately
- ✓ Reporting near misses, property damage, dangerous occurrences and accidents, or any related incident, which has led, or could lead, to injury or damage. Also by assisting with investigations of incidents, with the aim of introducing measures to prevent the reoccurrence of such incidents
- ✓ Reporting any other issue they feel could lead towards an improvement of any matter relating to our Health & Safety culture, even where no immediate danger exists

As Managing Director of London Hose, I commit to ensuring our Health & Safety Policy is reviewed at least annually, whilst fully encouraging and welcoming the participation of my team. I will ensure the Policy is communicated to all of our employees. I will also ensure the Policy is displayed within our business reception areas to show how committed we are to our own Health & Safety and that of our visitors and contractors.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Chris Thomas', is written over a faint, light-colored circular stamp or watermark.

Chris Thomas
Managing Director

01/01/2018